Course Overview

The AI+ L&D course training offers a comprehensive examination of AI's transformative capabilities within educational settings. Through a series of modules encompassing Machine Learning, Natural Language Processing, Ethical considerations, and Emerging Trends, participants acquire a profound comprehension of AI fundamentals and their practical implications. Participants will learn to design adaptive learning systems and navigate ethical dilemmas, fostering responsible implementation of AI solutions. The course culminates in a capstone project, enabling learners to tackle real-world educational challenges with their acquired knowledge. By the course's conclusion, participants are empowered to spearhead innovation and elevate learning outcomes using AI-driven strategies.

Who Should Attend

Content Strategist

Prerequisites & Entry Requirements

General Prerequisites:

A basic understanding of artificial intelligence concepts and terminologies, Proficiency in using digital tools and platforms for educational purposes, Familiarity with learning theories and instructional design principles, Some experience in educational or training roles, such as teaching, content development, or instructional design, A willingness to engage with technical subjects and apply AI technologies in the context of learning and development

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

Course Objectives

- Gain an in-depth understanding of artificial intelligence's integration in education, focusing on its effects on content creation, assessments, feedback mechanisms, and ethical issues.
- Learn key concepts and methods of machine learning, including various types of learning processes, and their practical applications in enhancing educational outcomes.
- Investigate the use of natural language processing in improving content analysis, personalization of learning experiences, and the automation of educational assessments and feedback.
- Acquire skills to utilize AI for the creation and curation of educational materials, understanding adaptive content generation and addressing ethical concerns related to AI content management.
- Understand the principles behind adaptive learning systems, focusing on their design, implementation, and evaluation, while considering ethical and privacy issues in personalized education.

Detailed Course Outline

- Introduction to Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Education

  Overview of Artificial Intelligence AI®s Role in Education and Training Impact of AI on Educational Content Creation AI in Assessment and Feedback Ethical Considerations and Challenges

- Machine Learning Fundamentals

  Introduction to Machine Learning Supervised Learning Unsupervised Learning Reinforcement Learning Machine Learning in Practice

- Natural Language Processing (NLP)for Educational Content

  Fundamentals of NLP in Education Content Analysis and Enhancement Personalized Learning and Adaptive Content Assessment and Feedback Automation

- AI-Driven Content Creation and Curation

AI in Generating Educational Content Adaptive Learning Materials Creation Dynamic Assessment Item Generation Curating Educational Resources Challenges and Ethical Considerations in AI-Driven Content

- Adaptive Learning Systems
